

SYNOPSIS

Aim/Objective:

1. The development and Implementation of a cutting edge food waste the management App designed to address the processing global issue of food waste.
2. To connect the various food providing centres.
3. To provide food security for the poor.

Methodology :

Collection of Data from

- a. Wikipedia
- b. Newspaper articles
- c. YouTube videos

Chapterisation :

Chapter I : Introduction regarding the issue of wastage of food from by various food providing centres such as households , restaurants, Catering Services, Ngo's and so on.

Chapter II: Understanding the current food waste management practices.

Chapter III : Rate of Technology in Food Waste Management.

Chapter IV : Features and functionality of the FAN App.

Chapter V : Integration with food provider and business.

Chapter VI : Partnership and community involvements.

Chapter VII : Quality assurance of the food being donated .

Chapter VIII : Donated food distribution service.

Conclusion :

1. The project aims to address the pressing global issue of food waste by developing the FAN App, a user-friendly and efficient platform to connect food providers with those in need.
2. By incorporating technology and fostering partnerships, the app seeks to enhance food security for the less privileged while promoting a sustainable and responsible approach to food management.
3. The successful implementation of the FAN App has the potential to make a significant positive impact on food waste reduction and contribute to a more equitable society.